

Notes for Contributors

- Dîvân: Journal of Interdisciplinary Studies, a refereed biannual publication of the Foundation for Sciences and Arts since 1996, welcomes articles of a high standard, original scholarship and interdisciplinary perspective in the areas of social sciences, philosophy, history of science, arts, history and literature. It also accepts research notes, reviews of books, symposiums and conferences, edition of Arabic and Ottoman Turkish texts.
- All submissions are assessed by referees, but the Editorial Board reserves the right to make the ultimate decision on publication. Manuscripts submitted for publication may not be returned.
- The responsibility of the articles in terms of scientific criteria, wording, and legal rules is of the contributors.
- Preferred language of publication is Turkish, but articles in other languages are all welcome.
- Articles should not exceed 10,000 words. The maximum size for reviews is 1,500 words.
- All submissions should apply reference style given at www.divandergisi.com/kurallar.aspx
- A brief abstract of no more than 200 words and five key words should accompany all article submissions.
- All contributors are sent 50 free off prints, along with a copyright payment after the publication.
- Submissions should be sent as attachment via e-mail to divandergisi@yahoo.com